Mr. Joel B. Marangella, President
International Baha'i Council

May 1, 1966

The assembled Delegates and Believers at the third Annual Convention of the Baha'is under the Hereditary Guardianship wish to send their loving greetings to you as President of the Second International Baha'i Council and through you to the other Council Members.

We understand the grave responsibilities the Guardian has now placed in your hands and we wish to assure you of our loving and continuing support in the multiple tasks that lie before you.

Know that our prayers are with you and that we re-dedicate ourselves to the teaching work so dear to the heart of the Guardian.

Faithfully and lovingly in El Abha,

Delegates and Believers attending the
United States Convention
