

EXHIBIT O

*Joplin Globe Joplin, Mo.
April 20, 1961*

Bahais to Attend National Convention

A dispute over the successor to Leland Jensen and Mrs. Barbara Jackson of Joplin, Mrs. Jean Miller of Webb City, Mrs. Berdie Badgett, Baxter Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Murphy, Columbus. the guardianship of the Bahai faith has divided 7,000 American believers into two camps, each of which will hold a national convention in Illinois next week.

Those Bahais who have accepted American-born Charles Mason Remy as their guardian, or spiritual leader, will meet in Quincy, Ill., for their convention April 28-30.

Attending the convention in Quincy from this area are Dr.

The Bahais in Joplin will hold an annual meeting to elect its local spiritual assembly Thursday in the home of Dr. Leland Jensen, 2002 Bird street. The Webb City Bahais will elect spiritual assembly Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norton, 1005 West First street, Webb City.